Ok -- can you try a Google Search off FERC

Thats how i was running searches last night

I mean for items off the FERC Docket

Perhaps on the Pipeline's website or otherwise?

Pipeline's website doesnt have FERC filings, just Virginia DEQ filings for some weird reason

I also checked their website for news releases for FERC

But run a search for information more generally on the map

What information are we trying to ultimately get?

When map was publicly announced
